2ND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

THE SECOND STEP OF GETTING READY: READING THE SIGNS

Advent is a special time to prepare our hearts to welcome Christ into our lives, and we do this in a very special way at every Mass. Last week we started some reflections therefore on how to prepare ourselves to welcome Christ in the Eucharist. The first step was simply turning up. Every time we do that we are acting out Jesus' invitation to "Do this in memory of me." The second step is to deepen our understanding of what the 'this' actually means. What are we doing when we celebrate the Eucharist?

Let's go back to the start. On the night before he died, Jesus gathered his apostles around him in a secret room. Soon he would go to his Cross, in obedience to the Father's plan. There he would offer himself for our sakes, so that we may be saved. In preparation, he gave his disciples a sign. He took some bread, blessed and broke it, and handed it to his disciples, saying "Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my Body, which will be given up for you." And in the same way he took the cup and said, "This is my Blood, which will be poured out for you and for many." Without yet understanding, they took the gifts and shared in them.

Soon after, he was betrayed. He was put on trial and condemned to be crucified.

There, on the Cross, he gave up his Body for our sakes. There, on the Cross, his Blood was poured out for us. There, on the Cross, he offered up his whole life as a loving sacrifice. His disciples witnessed all of this. At first, it seemed a disaster to them. The one they loved had been taken from them. The one they hoped in had been abandoned by God. They laid him in a tomb and hid themselves away.

On the third day, the first day of the week, some of the women went to his tomb to finish anointing his body. But it wasn't there. Angels appeared to tell them he was risen. They were dumfounded. They ran to tell the others, still gathered in that same room. Meanwhile, some of his followers left Jerusalem in despair. Jesus began to walk alongside them, but at first they were prevented from recognising him. He asked them why they were so sad. They explained what they had seen and how their hopes had been dashed. Jesus then began to break open the Scriptures to them, explaining how it was all in accordance with the Father's plan. As they reached where they were going, they invited him to eat with them. Sitting down, he took some bread, blessed and broke it... and their eyes were finally opened. They recognised Jesus in the breaking of the bread, but as soon as they did, he was taken again from their sight.

There is a lot going on in all of that, but for now let's just focus on this; the Easter story begins and ends with the Eucharist. That is no accident. The sign of the bread and wine is the special key with which we can open up the Easter Mystery. It not only helps us makes sense of what happened on the Cross, it is also the special means by which we can take our part in Jesus' sacrifice. Whenever we celebrate the Eucharist, the Holy Spirit bridges all distances of time and space, and our prayers are united with his prayer to the Father on the Cross. Whenever we break the bread, he stands among us again, victorious over death, and we stand alongside him, full of hope, that we too will share in that same victory. What we see and taste are humble signs, the stuff of everyday. But with the eyes of faith, we recognise Christ sharing his life with us, and we sharing ours with him. There can be no better gift.

HAVE YOU THOUGHT?

What image comes to mind when you hear the description of John the Baptist? How would a character like John be regarded today?

How does our society tend to respond to those who bear a prophetic message?

Why does John appear so critical of the Pharisees and Sadducees? How do you think they would have reacted to what John said to them?

What does it mean to truly repent?

Where in your life do you need to make a conversion and honestly 'prepare the way'?

When have you experienced a 'wilderness' time from which you emerged rejuvenated and refocused?

ACTS OF KINDESS FOR ADVENT

*Get back in touch with a friend you miss.

*Notice when you're being hard on yourself and be kind instead.

*Take time to appreciate someone who does something you take for granted.

*Be the one to shift a negative conversation into something positive.

*Do something that makes you laugh out loud.

GOSPEL Mt 3:1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew:
Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.

In due course John the Baptist appeared; he preached in the wilderness of Judaea and this was his message: 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' This was the man the prophet Isaiah spoke of when he said:

A voice cries in the wilderness: Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight.

This man John wore a garment made of camel-hair with a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then Jerusalem and all Judaea and the whole Jordan district made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. But when he saw a number of Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism he said to them, 'Brood of vipers, who warned you to fly from the retribution that is coming? But if you are repentant, produce the appropriate fruit, and do not presume to tell yourselves, "We have Abraham for our father," because, I tell you, God can raise children for Abraham from these stones. Even now the axe is laid to the roots of the trees, so that any tree which fails to produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown on the fire. I baptise you in water for repentance, but the one who follows me is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to carry his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand; he will clear his threshing-floor and gather his wheat into the barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

READINGS NEXT WEEK: 3rd Sunday of Advent

First Reading: Is 35:1-6, 10

Second Reading: James 5:7-10

Gospel: Mt 11:2-11

FIRST READING Is 11:1-10

A reading from the prophet Isaiah:

He judges the poor with justice

A shoot springs from the stock of Jesse,
a scion thrusts from his roots:
on him the spirit of the Lord rests,
a spirit of wisdom and insight,
a spirit of counsel and power,
a spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.

(The fear of the Lord is his breath.)

He does not judge by appearances,
he gives no verdict on hearsay,
but judges the wretched with integrity,
and with equity gives a verdict for the poor of the land.

His word is a rod that strikes the ruthless,
his sentences bring death to the wicked.
Integrity is the loincloth round his waist,
faithfulness the belt about his hips.

The wolf lives with the lamb,
the panther lies down with the kid,
calf and lion cub feed together with a little boy to lead them.
The cow and the bear make friends,
their young lie down together.
The lion eats straw like the ox.

The infant plays over the cobra's hole;
into the viper's lair the young child puts his hand.
They do no hurt, no harm, on all my holy mountain, for the country is filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters swell the sea.

That day, the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples. It will be sought out by the nations and its home will be glorious.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 71:1-2. 7-8. 12-13. 17. R. cf. v.7.

(R.) Justice shall flourish in his time,
and fullness of peace for ever.

O God, give your judgement to the king, to a king's son your justice, that he may judge your people in justice and your poor in right judgement.

In his days justice shall flourish and peace till the moon fails. He shall rule from sea to sea, from the Great River to the earth's bounds.

For he shall save the poor when they cry and the needy who are helpless. He will have pity on the weak and save the lives of the poor.

May his name be blessed for ever and endure like the sun. Every tribe shall be blessed in him, all nations bless his name.

(R.) Justice shall flourish in his time,
and fullness of peace for ever.

SECOND READING Rom 15:4-9

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans:
Christ, the hope of all people.

Everything that was written long ago in the scriptures was meant to teach us something about hope from the examples scripture gives of how people who did not give up were helped by God. And may he who helps us when we refuse to give up, help you all to be tolerant with each other, following the example of Christ Jesus, so that united in mind and voice you may give glory to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It can only be to God's glory, then, for you to treat each other in the same friendly way as Christ treated you. The reason Christ became the servant of circumcised Jews was not only so that God could faithfully carry out the promises made to the patriarchs, it was also to get the pagans to give glory to God for his mercy, as scripture says in one place:
For this I shall praise you among the pagans and sing your name.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Lk 3:4, 6

Alleluia, alleluia!

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths:
all people shall see the salvation of God.

Alleluia!
