12TH FEBRUARY 2023 6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

WORLD MARRIAGE DAY

As you know, I am off this weekend for my younger sister's wedding. It turns out she has picked a very appropriate weekend to be married- because I've read that this Sunday is World Marriage Day, and that is something definitely worth celebrating! This initiative was started by the Marriage Encounter movement, which has helped many couples across the world grow in their appreciation and love for each other. Why this Sunday? I think quite simply because it is the closest to St Valentine's Day. How romantic!

While not all of us are married, all of us benefit from the gift of married love lived out with faithfulness and perseverance. Children and grandchildren are nurtured and learn what it means to be loved and spouses help each other grow in love day by day. But the fruits of marriage are not limited to the immediate families. All of us benefit from the friendship, support and hospitality of married couples, but perhaps even more importantly we are continually strengthened by their example of sacrificial love. When the marriage covenant is lived out in faithfulness, all of us can see there a living sign of Christ's abiding love for his Church. And this is not mere romanticism- married life brings many tests and challenges. It is not necessarily outward 'success' that best witnesses to Christ's love, but rather faithful perseverance through all the ups and downs. To all of you who persevere so faithfully in the circumstances in which you find yourselves... thank you. We continue to pray for you and ask God to bless all married couples.

Our world needs your witness.

WELCOME FR DENIS RYAN

We welcome Fr Denis Ryan and thank him for travelling up from Geelong to celebrate our weekend Masses in across the Parish. Fr Denis had a good stint in Sea Lake 'back in the day', so he knows our area well and is looking forward to catching up with some old friends. Thank you Fr Denis!

HAVE YOU THOUGHT?

What do you think Jesus means when he uses the words 'abolish' and 'complete'?

Why is Jesus' combination of both the Law and the Prophets significant?

What do you take from the final teaching about not making oaths; just saying yes or no if you mean it?

What modern interpretation could be used that might better explain one of these laws?

Why do you think it's important to interpret the Bible rather than read it as literal truth?

Why does Jesus speak about not only keeping commandments but also teaching others to keep them?

Where in your life are you called to be someone who fulfils or completes the Law and the Prophets?

or he may hand you over to the judge and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you solemnly, you will not get out till you have paid the last penny.

'You have learnt how it was said: You must not commit adultery. But I say this to you: if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye should cause you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body thrown into hell. And if your right hand should cause you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body go to hell.

'It has also been said: Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a writ of dismissal. But I say this to you: everyone who divorces his wife, except for the case of fornication, makes her an adulteress; and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

'Again, you have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you: do not swear at all, either by heaven, since that is God's throne; or by the earth, since that is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, since that is the city of the great king. Do not swear by your own head either, since you cannot turn a single hair white or black. All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the evil one.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

"Let your
'YES'
mean
'YES,' and your
'NO'
mean
'NO.'"

READINGS NEXT WEEK

7th Sunday Ordinary Time

First Reading: Lv 19:1-2. 17-18

Second Reading: 1 Cor 3:16-23

Gospel: Mt 5:38-48

FIRST READING Sir 15:15-20

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

He never commanded anyone to be godless.

If you wish, you can keep the commandments,
to behave faithfully is within your power.

He has set fire and water before you;
put out your hand to whichever you prefer.

Man has life and death before him;
whichever a man likes better will be given him.

For vast is the wisdom of the Lord;
he is almighty and all-seeing.

His eyes are on those who fear him,
he notes every action of man.

He never commanded anyone to be godless,
he has given no one permission to sin.

The Word of the Lord. ALL: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 118:1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34. R.v.1

(R.) Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

They are happy whose life is blameless, who follow God's law! They are happy those who do his will, seeking him with all their hearts.

You have laid down your precepts to be obeyed with care. May my footsteps be firm to obey your statutes.

Bless your servant and I shall live and obey your word. Open my eyes that I may consider the wonders of your law.

Teach me the demands of your statutes and I will keep them to the end. Train me to observe your law, to keep it with my heart.

(R.) Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

SECOND READING 1 Cor 2:6-10

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

God in his wisdom predestined our glory before the ages began.

We have a wisdom to offer those who have reached maturity: not a philosophy of our age, it is true, still less of the masters of our age, which are coming to their end. The hidden wisdom of God which we teach in our mysteries is the wisdom that God predestined to be for our glory before the ages began. It is a wisdom that none of the masters of this age have ever known, or they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory; we teach what scripture calls: the things that no eye has seen and no ear has heard, things beyond the mind of man, all that God has prepared for those who love him.

These are the very things that God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit reaches the depths of everything, even the depths of God.

The Word of the Lord ALL: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION See Mt 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mt 5:17-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
Such was said to your ancestors; but I am speaking to you.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not imagine that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish them but to complete them. I tell you solemnly, till heaven and earth disappear, not one dot, one little stroke, shall disappear from the Law until its purpose is achieved. Therefore, the man who infringes even one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be considered the least in the kingdom of heaven; but the man who keeps them and teaches them will be considered great in the kingdom of heaven.

'For I tell you, if your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

'You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court. But I say this to you: anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court; if a man calls his brother "Fool" he will answer for it before the Sanhedrin; and if a man calls him "Renegade" he will answer for it in hell fire. So then, if you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar, go and be reconciled with your brother first,
and then come back and present your offering. Come to terms with your opponent in good time while you are still on the way to the court with him,
